WARNING TO READERS

Postal authorities offer these guidelines to help prevent you from becoming a victim of financial scams occasionally initiated by prisoners: 1. Any type of financial arrangement entered into with an inmate should be highly suspect, especially those in which the inmate requests financial favors, i.e., cashing postal money orders. 2. Money orders received from inmates should be immediately returned without cashing. 3. If you feel that you have been or are being victimized by an inmate initiated money order cashing scheme immediately contact the nearest Postal Inspector or Postmaster.

Although most prisoners are honest, we strongly advise readers to use caution when corresponding with inmates. We cannot be held responsible for any financial loss or other injury that may result from such correspondence.
